Re: Saint Louis University
OCR Complaint No. 07222172

Dear Dr. Perry:

On September 19, 2022, the U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights (OCR) received your complaint against Saint Louis University (University), located in St. Louis, Missouri, alleging discrimination based on race or color and national origin. Specifically, your complaint alleges the University operates, promotes, and/or funds the Scholarship Program for Visiting Medical Students Underrepresented in Medicine, which is limited to students underrepresented in medicine, including students who identify as African-American, Black, Hispanic/Latino, Native American, Pacific Islander, and mainland Puerto Rican.

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VI), 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000d et seq., and its implementing regulation at 34 C.F.R. Part 100, prohibit discrimination based on race, color, or national origin in any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance from the Department of Education. As a recipient of federal financial assistance from the U.S. Department of Education, the University is subject to Title VI and to OCR's jurisdiction. Additional information about the laws OCR enforces is available on our website at <http://www.ed.gov/ocr>.

OCR will investigate whether the University discriminates against students based on race, color, or national origin in connection with the Scholarship Program for Visiting Medical Students Underrepresented in Medicine.

Opening the complaint for investigation in no way implies that OCR has made a determination on the merits of the complaint. During the investigation, OCR is a neutral fact-finder, collecting and analyzing relevant evidence from the Complainant, the University, and other sources, as appropriate. OCR will ensure that its investigation is legally sufficient and is dispositive of the allegation(s) in accordance with the provisions of Article III of OCR's Case Processing Manual, available at <http://www.ed.gov/ocr/docs/ocrcpm.pdf>.

The Department of Education's mission is to promote student achievement and preparation for global competitiveness by fostering educational excellence and ensuring equal access.

Our goal is the prompt resolution of the complaint. Information on OCR's complaint processing procedures is available at <http://www.ed.gov/ocr/complaints-how.html>. Please note the section on resolution of a complaint prior to the conclusion of an investigation. If the recipient expresses an interest in resolving the complaint and OCR determines that resolution of the complaint prior to the completion of the investigation is appropriate, OCR may attempt to negotiate an agreement with the recipient pursuant to Case Processing Manual Section 302. Additionally, OCR offers, when appropriate, mediation to facilitate the voluntary resolution of complaints by the parties.

Please be advised that the University may not harass, coerce, intimidate, discriminate, or otherwise retaliate against an individual because that individual asserts a right or privilege under a law enforced by OCR or files a complaint, testifies, or participates in an OCR proceeding. Complaints alleging such retaliation may be filed with OCR.

Under the Freedom of Information Act, it may be necessary to release this document and related correspondence and records upon request. If OCR receives such a request, it will seek to protect, to the extent provided by law, personally identifiable information that could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy if released.
